

100

5

Figure 1 is a schematic representation of the experimental design. It shows a flow from 'Study design' to 'Study population' and 'Study variables'. 'Study design' includes 'Study design' and 'Study variables'. 'Study population' includes 'Study population' and 'Study variables'. 'Study variables' includes 'Study variables' and 'Study variables'. The diagram is a complex flowchart showing the relationships between different study components.